

PIERGIACOMO CALZAVARA-PINTON

was born in Brescia, 24/05/1955.

Position

- Chairman of the School of Dermatology at the University of Brescia since 2004.
- Chairman of the Department of Dermatology of the AO Spedali Civili di Brescia since 1st January 2003.

Career

He graduated in Medicine at the University of Milan in July 1980, magna cum laude. He completed School of Specialization in Dermatology at the University of Milan in July 1983. Medical Assistant of Dermatology at the University of Brescia since June 1984 Associate Professor of Dermatology at the University of Brescia since October 2004 Full Professor of Dermatology at the University of Brescia since December 2015

Projects and Society Memberships

He participated at several Italian Ministerial projects (1990, 1991, 1992, 1993). From 2008 to 2012 he took part in the European Project V Framework Program for the Research and Technological Development of the European Union, entitled "Reflectance Confocal microscopy". From 2014 he is the referee of the Italian Ministry of University for the evaluation of the research in Dermatology.

President:

Italian Society of Dermatology and STD (SIDEMAST)

Board Member:

European Academy of Dermatology and Venereology (EADV)

European Society of PhotoDermatology (ESPD)

Gruppo Italiano di studi epidemiologici in Dermatologia (GISED)

Ordinary Member:

European Dermatology Forum (EDF)

European Association of Dermato-Oncology (EADO)

European Society for Photobiology (ESP)

American Society for Photobiology (ASP)

European Group for Photodynamic Therapy (EURO-PDT group)

Societa' Italiana di Fotobiologia (SIF)

Associazione Italiana di Diagnostica non invasiva in Dermatologia (AIDNID)

Research Interest

Since 1985 he practice research mainly in the field of photobiology, photodermatology, non invasive diagnostic techniques and genetic disorders.

Publications and bibliometric indexes

So far, Piergiacomo Calzavara-Pinton published over 252 papers cited in Pub Med (H-index=35), 47 book chapters and over 200 abstracts in national and international congresses and conferences.