

Biosketch

Antonio Cristaudo is a dermatologist and venerologist with a vast experience in IST prevention , diagnosis and therapies. In 1987 he started his clinical and research activity at the San Gallicano Dermatologic Institute in Rome , a research and health Institute, his main duties are the management of patients with IST and HIV infections, contact dermatitis and urticaria. In April 2013, he became head of the IST department at the San Gallicano Dermatologic Institute. He is PI of trials and scientific projects on IST, HIV, HPV infections and occupational dermatosis. He is author of more than 180 scientific articles in high indexed journals, most of which in the field of IST and contact dermatitis. He is the current President of the Italian Association of Hospital Dermatologists (ADOI).

Antonio Cristaudo

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Antonio Cristaudo', with a long horizontal flourish underneath.