

ALESSANDRO DI STEFANI

Alessandro Di Stefani is Assistant Medical Director at the Institute of Dermatology, Catholic University of Rome, Policlinico A. Gemelli and has the National Scientific Qualification as Associate Professor since 2013. He is President of the Italian Association of Non-Invasive Diagnostics in Dermatology (AIDNID) since 2015.

He graduated in Medicine and Surgery in 2002 and completed his residency in Dermatology at the University of Rome Tor Vergata in 2006, working in the Department of Dermatology with his Chief Professor Sergio Chimenti till 2013. He obtained the European Board Certification in Dermatopathology in Frankfurt in 2007 and the specialization in Pathology in 2013. He was visiting and research fellow at the Research Unit of Dermatopathology Medical University of Graz, Austria, in 2004 and 2007. He was awarded of research grants as the SIDeMaST Fellowship Award of the Italian Society of Dermatology in 2007 and 2008.

His main fields of research and clinical interest include dermatopathology, dermatology (melanoma, non-melanoma skin cancer, cutaneous lymphomas), inflammatory skin diseases, dermoscopy and telemedicine.

He has authored or co-authored more than 60 publications in internationally peer-reviewed journals, contributed to several book chapters and lectured at national and international conferences. He is Board Member of the International Dermoscopy Society and of the International Society of Teledermatology.