

24TH WORLD CONGRESS
OF DERMATOLOGY
MILAN 2019

CHEE LEOK GOH

Prof Goh graduated from the medical school of the National University of Singapore in 1974. He obtained his post graduate degree in 1978 and awarded a post doctoral degree in Doctor of Medicine in 1994.

He is currently a Senior Consultant Dermatologist at the National Skin Centre and Clinical Professor of the Faculty of Medicine of the National University of Singapore and Adjunct Professor of the LKC School of Medicine at the Nanyang Technology University/Imperial College of London. He is also the Chief Medical Informatics Officer of the Centre. He was the Medical Director of the National Skin Centre, Singapore between 1990 and 2004. He is also the Chairman of the Pharmacovigilance Advisory Committee of the Health Science Authority of the Ministry of Health.

He is a member of the International Contact Dermatitis Research Group. He was past president of the Society of Laser Medicine and Surgery of Singapore and also past president of the Environmental and Occupational Dermatology Society of Singapore. He is a past member of editorial board of the Contact Dermatitis (Munksgaard Publication) and past international editorial board member of the Archives of Dermatology and Journal of the American Academy of Dermatology. He has published more than 300 scientific papers in peer review journals and chapter contributor to numerous dermatology reference books and co-editor of several reference dermatology books and several educational books for the lay public