

24TH WORLD CONGRESS
OF DERMATOLOGY
MILAN 2019

SUSAN H. WEINKLE

Susan H. Weinkle, MD is board-certified in dermatology. She is a fellow of the American College of Mohs Surgery and a diplomat of the American Board of Dermatology. Dr. Weinkle graduated summa cum laude from the University of Florida in 1974 and completed her residency in dermatology at Stanford University Medical Center in 1982, where she held the position of Chief Resident. During her residency, Dr. Weinkle trained with Frederick Mohs, MD in Madison, Wisconsin. She has been in solo private practice since 1984, specializing in Mohs surgery and cosmetic dermatology. She has held academic appointments at Stanford University Hospital, the University of California Irvine Medical Center and the University of South Florida. Dr. Weinkle is affiliated with many professional organizations and societies. She has been on the board of directors and chaired numerous committees in organizations including the American Academy of Dermatology, Dermatology Foundation, and the Florida Society of Dermatology and Dermatologic Surgery. She has served as a medical spokesperson and has also directed the live demonstration sessions for the American Academy of Dermatology for the past 13 years. Dr. Weinkle has served as President of the American Society of Dermatologic Surgery and the Women's Dermatologic Society. She is an active member of the American Dermatological Association. She is the current President of the Florida Society of Dermatologic Surgery. In 2010, the Women's Dermatologic Society presented Dr. Weinkle with the prestigious Rose Hirschler Award, and she was chosen as the Legacy Honoree in 2017. The Florida Society of Dermatology awarded her Practitioner of the Year in 2014. She has been voted one of the "Best Doctors" for the past 16 years. Dr. Weinkle is passionate about all aspects of dermatology: mentoring, scientific innovation, and building enduring relationships within the dermatology community. She has participated in many clinical trials involving toxins, fillers, and other devices. Dr. Weinkle is medical editor for Drugs in Dermatology and is on the editorial board of Practical Dermatology and Cosmetic Dermatology. She has published numerous articles on skin carcinoma, surgical techniques and cosmetic therapies. She frequently lectures on behalf of the American Academy of Dermatology and other leading dermatology societies, both nationally and internationally. Dr. Weinkle and her husband, Dana, an ophthalmologist, live in Bradenton, Florida. Their 29-year-old daughter, Allison, is completing her first year residency in dermatology at the University of South Florida and will be married this July. Their 32-year-old son, Justin, is married and works in finance in New York.
