

24TH WORLD CONGRESS
OF DERMATOLOGY
MILAN 2019

WILMA FOWLER BERGFELD

is Emeritus Director, Departments of Dermatology and Pathology and Senior Staff Dermatologist, Cleveland Clinic. She also is the Director of the Cleveland Clinic's Dermatopathology Fellowship and Professor of Dermatology and Pathology, Cleveland Clinic Educational Foundation. Dr. Bergfeld's specialty interests include clinical dermatology (hair disorders, androgen excess, photo aging, and cosmetic dermatology) and dermatopathology.

Dr. Bergfeld is a former chair and currently consultant to the FDA Dermatology and Ophthalmology Advisory Committee (1972-current) and a consultant to the Devis advisory committee (2009-current). She is the President elect 2019 American Dermatologic Association, immediate past President of North American Hair Research Society (2011-2016) and Director, World Congress of Hair Research 2015 Miami, Co-Director, American Hair Research Society Summit 2018, and past 2008-9 President of the American Society of Dermatopathology, and the 1992 President of The American Academy of Dermatology.